CSO Ticketing Policies

All ticket redemptions final - no refunds.

Performance dates, times, locations, repertoire, and artists are subject to change.

Latecomers will be seated at the first appropriate interval in the program in the most accessible seat(s).

Latecomers may claim their ticketed seat(s) at intermission.

Please silence all personal devices which may ring/alarm during the performance. Photography, video, and audio recording during performances are strictly prohibited.

The Chattanooga Symphony & Opera (CSO) reserves the right to video/audio record and photograph performances, including the audience, for future broadcast and/or promotion. Your attendance at this event grants permission to use your image, likeness, actions, and statements as captured through video/audio and/or photography in connection with the promotion and marketing of the CSO and its related events, without further authorization or compensation.

Children are welcome at CSO performances, but we do not recommend bringing children under the age of 4 to Classics Series performances.

As attending the CSO is primarily a listening experience, parties with disruptive children will be asked to step out into the hallway to quiet their children.

Please, no babes in arms.

Infants, kids and their families are encouraged to join us for Family Concerts, Home for the Holidays, and our Young People's Concerts.
